ATTENTION : ALL COLLECTORS OF GREAT COMIC ART !!

The SFCA has now embarked on a new innovation that we feel will open up a whole ew field of collecting for the serious comic fan. In the months and years to come, e will be offering what we call "CLASSIC REPRODUCTIONS". These will be big, 10½ x 5½, black and white (half tone) reproductions of only the FINEST COMIC ART around. hey are printed on heavy, high-quality, 6-ply coated pasteboard. They're suitable or framing, hanging on the wall as is, or collecting in a portfolio. In fact, you ay want to buy two copies of some of your favorites, one for your wall, and one or your portfolio.

While we would all like to have a large collection of "original" comic art, the xpense of such a collection is pretty discouraging. However these "Classics" (and hey are just that), are about the closest thing you can get to an "original", and t a price all fans can afford. But, let's get back to the art itself, for that is eally the most important thing. Most, if not all, of these reproductions will be ade from original drawings and paintings (mostly paintings) by two of the most alented artists around--John Fantucchio and Don Newton!! Never has a name, "Clas- ic Reproductions", so aptly described an item! Once you buy one, we are sure you ill want to collect the entire series, which we feel will be running for years to ome. So there is no telling how large your collection will eventually be.

We will try to add at least one, possibly two, new "CR's" to the series as each RB&CC comes out. However, the type of art we require*, naturally, cannot be turned ut overnight. We will not be able to include illustrations of these masterpieces ere because there are too many. However, you will be seeing smaller versions of ome of them in the RB&CC from time to time, because we will be using some of John nd Don's RB&CC art for the reproductions too.

*Other artists may submit paintings and drawings, but only the very best will be considered. We repeat, ONLY the very best. So, when you see an artist has had a painting or drawing accepted, you can be sure that artist has turned in an exceptionally fine piece of work. Absolutely no simple line drawings are accepted.

RICES ARE AS FOLLOWS:

$1.25 each, Two for $2.00, Three for $2.70, Four for $3.20, Over four-70¢ each. If you want your copies mailed first class add 25¢ extra for each "CR" you order.

Send all orders to: THE SFCA, Dept. "CR", 9875 SW. 212 St., MIAMI, FLORIDA 33157

This does not mean that any we do not stock isn't good, because we cannot, of course, stock them all. Dear G.B.,
Received RB&CC #66 and the Classic Reproductions; thanks. I'm happy you used white paper for the cover. I would have done the same. I was amazed by the similarity between the cover of WEIRD SCIENCE #15 and my drawing. The volcanoes, pterandons, tyrannosaur-type dinosaur, the running lizard, and of course the space-suited earthmen are all elements appearing in both Mr. Wood's drawing and my own. It's too bad I didn't know what this cover looked like before-hand. If I had, I would not had done so much the same thing as had been done before. (EDITOR: In that case, I'm glad you hadn't seen it for I wouldn't have had you change one single stroke).
The "Homage to Alex Raymond" was indeed an impressive piece of work. Mr. Richardson is to be congratulated for his excellent job. He has managed achieve that same flowing line and strategic use of half tones (in this case, zip-a-tone) we Raymond enthusiasts are all so familiar with. A beautiful drawing.
Don Newton did it again with "The Savage Earth." Each edition is more professional in appearence.

ROBERT KLINE

Dear G.B.,
Just when I'm commencing to consider you already as having in possession the most complete art staff found anywhere in fandom, you craftily knock me out with the truly wondrous workmanship of John Adkins Richardson and Robert Kline. I was beginning to think no one would come along equipped with the proper amount of talent to stand firmly alongside the much acclaimed Fantucchio and Newton. ~~W~~ Quite apparently I've been the bearer of ~~tttxxxxxxtttxx~~ a false train of thought as the sumptuous illustrations embellishing issue 66 will readily testify. What a cover; so superlative and luscious in its painstaking detail it can justifiably be heralded as "E.C. Personified." Noticeably, Kline employs some of the techniques used by Fantucchio yet he still maintains an extremely original style definitely his own. What an artist!!! Any simpleton can easily predict he will reach soaring heights in fandom and since I'm somewhat of a fool myself I wholeheartedly concur with this not ~~a~~l all premature prediction.
John Richardson is yet another talented fellow, particularly in the painting department. The Spectre masterpiece was one of the eeriest and best drawn versions of everyone's favorite ghost I've seen in many a year. I can sum up his work with one colloquial term employed frequently by the younger set, and that exclamatory vocable is--WOW !
I close this laudatory letter of comment by wishing both these artistic aces an everlasting popularity in the eyes of fickle fandom for, indeed, they are worthy of it.

Dear G.B.,
I suppose I should clarify a few things about my letter in RB&CC #64 and discuss the comments on it in #65. I have a feeling that I'm one of those people you were referring to in your first editorial. True, my last letter did make it sound as though I thought fandom was dying, but I really don't. I'm not talking about the strength in numbers, but more of the strength in our "fan feelings" toward one another. On the average, fans get along very well, much more so than other groups of people, but it's the small quarrels that are hurting us.
Now that I've got that out of my system, I'll go on to other subjects. I agree with Paul McSpadden about supporting the larger zines that are in trouble (EDITOR: Paul said the 'better' zines, not larger) but let's still not forget about the smaller, potentially big, zines, either.
Congratulations on getting John Richardson, Robert Kline, Dick Mosso, and William Barry on your staff. I hope to see many Classic Reproductions from all of them. Also, on getting Rich Hauser. His E.C.R. column will (or already has) become a regular with me.

Dear G.B.,
Sorry for not answering your letter but it's your fault. Yes, your fault because you are the publisher of that fanzine called RB&CC. Because of my last ad in your zine, I've been averaging 15 orders a day since Aug. 26 and, ~~w~~ consequently am going crazy. All my time (free or otherwise) has been filled just by opening and reading letters, wrapping and sending comics. Have already mailed about 300, with 400 more to go. It's also your fault I'm weeks behind in my daily activities, as well as in extra-curricular correspondence with comic collecting friends. It's also your fault I'm only placing a ½ page ad in RB&CC #66. I just didn't have time for otherwise.
Yes, all the troubles I have are due to you and I thank you for them. Never have I seen such a response to any of my ads.
I want to thank you again for publishing RB&CC. Without it, I don't know whether or not I'd still be collecting. With it, you couldn't drag me out of collecting.

LUCAS DANG

(EDITOR: Your idea of mailing West Coast copies of the RB&CC a day early, basicly is a good idea. However, the amount of extra time and work it would take to go through 2,000 copies and separate them in regards to east and west coasts, makes it utterly impossible. I do good just getting this monster out every two months.)

Dear G.B.,
Issue #65 was, as usual, improved over its predecessors and not so unusual, improved greatly. The RB&CC is an adzine and as one, doesn't stress non-ad material (or for that matter, neddn't stress it). Each issue, however, the contributions become even more interesting than just space fillers. #65, even with the absence of John Fantucchio, furnished us with great simply-for-pleasure reading. Most notably this issue was Rich Hauser's "E.C. Revisited" which gave an interesting insight into what actually made this great comics group. Howard Siegel and Raymond Miller's columns as always, are interesting, but "Comic Collectors Comments" seems just short of being a trivia column. Newton's "Savage Earth" is interesting but the plot of an evil scientist taking the form of a robot is common (EDITOR: Sure it's common, but that doesn't prevent one from enjoying a a well written, and more important, a very good drawn strip. How many uncommon plots are there?)

Not so common but just as ludicrous was that the scientist, shunned by his fellow scientists, is an old enemy of Argon. The best original art in this ish was John Adkins Richardson's Dr. Fate, a really good job and I hope we get to see more of his work. All in all, continue the non-ad material and maintain its high quality. The only thing I didn't like about this particular issue was the pink paper, for the cover. (EDITOR: You mean the fact that the color of the paper was pink made the art less enjoyable ? I think it helps to use various colored paper on the covers from time to time.)

DEAR G.B.,

Once again you've come up with another winner. Every feature was good and many were exceptional. The latest issue had your first, I believe, Newton cover and it was well worth the wait. As to the Savage Earth, as you may remember I apologized for my criticism of the ever-lasting qualities of Dr. Argon's equipment. To forgive the addition of a manical dwarf named Lars Destruction is something else again. Get rid of Lars quickly or change the name. The two reproductions in RB&CC #65 were very welcome. The Flash Gordon strip was the best example of Raymond art I've seen. The Uncle Sam repro was not as clear but was still very good. EC Revisited was nothing very new except for the information of the early EC fanzines. It does promise to be good next issue. Thank you for a good issue.

Dear G.B.,

I see a lot of unjustified criticism of you and RB&CC nowadays , by the way. A shame that people think someone should run an adzine--not an article zine but an adzine, for God's sake--for fun instead of profit. Insane. Whatever your motives (and I'm not saying anything against the capitalistic profit motive, mind you), you are still doing fandom a great service. It's a shame that certain dealers snap up many of the bargains--but, since they pay for air-mail and since I assume you don't mail their copies any sooner than other air-mail subs like my own, no one has a gripe coming. (EDITOR: Actually, out of about 30 to 40 air-mail subscriptions we have, only 5 or 6 are dealers)

EDITORS NOTE: Am sorry that so many of you that order SPA PON #5 from the SFCA have had to wait so long for your copy (This also held up other orders that included SPA PON). He will be visiting several pros, including Frazetta, and Rich promises us that the his next column will be extra special.

The above material is not for sale by mail order (except for the fanzines) but if you are ever in Miami, don't leave without coming out to see me (G.B. Love). This is the only place in Miami where this type material is offered for sale. This is a home not a store, but you are welcomed most any time. We are located about 20 miles south of Miami (in a section called Cutler Ridge) about a mile off to the left of U.S. #1.

We also sell tape recordings of old radio shows. And we also have on display in our office some of the most beautiful pieces of original comic art (both drawings and full color oil paintings) that you will ever see in one place. Work by Newton, Fantucchio, Saunders, White, etc.

Our address is:

THE S.F.C.A. (G.B.LOVE), 9875 S.W. 212 ST., MIAMI, FLA. 33157

[Editor's Note: I would personally like to reccommend the Stor/Files which are advertised below. I use them myself to store my comics and other material and they are ideal. For comic books, I suggest the 25-226 size, as it will accomodate to five inch high stacks, which is quite a few comics. The 25-220 is great for those who collect the WALT DISNEY COMIC DIGEST, as it will accomodate (very nicely) two stacks (with 5 in each stack). And for you newspaper strip collectors, the 25-228 is absolutely ideal !)

TURN AROUND, HONEY, YOUR PAST IS SHOWING

by Bernie Bubnis

The memory of Flo Steinberg gritting her teeth and shoving Spiderman pin-ups into my ear is enough to convince me I shouldn't look back. Now don't get me wrong, the memory of Flo is a pretty one. She was for many years the darling of New York comicdom, the heart throb of many a teen aged boy, the true example of feminity and of course she was Stan Lee's secretary.

The olden Marvel offices had a bevy of dolls to deal with us young uns. I remember one poor gal whose memory went as far back as her last coffee break. Myself and a few other NY fen made very regular visits to Marvel because if you hit it on the right day Artie Simek could be talked into playing his harmonica (It was a toss up with me anyway which I treasured more--CAPT. AMERICA #1 or Simek playing his harmonica). So, anyway, this gal's job was having us sign the Marvel ledger each time we showed up. Needless to say, with her memory and our comic slanted humor the Marvel records still list Clark Kent, Billy Batson, and Super Monkey as having dropped in to jaw with the Marvel Bullpen.

It was really quite true that Marvel never did know what they were doing next--either that or they just never told their staff. Around this time in fan history 'ol' Jerry Bails was publishing the newsletter COMIC READER. After I dug up the new stuff coming from Marvel I'd quickly jet a letter off to Jerry so his CR would have all that info about upcoming Marvels. To this day Bails thinks I'm a complusive liar who was out to wreck comic fandom with false news items. After two years of visiting Marvel every month and being the only fan in fandom who didn't know what they were going to do next I took up stamp collecting.

The Marvel artists were out to get us also. Good friend Steve Ditko was kind enough to drop by our first con in '64. I was giving a welcoming speech at the time and he strolled into the meeting room. I introduced him and the excitement spread through the group of 150 like a newly lit spark. You must remember that fandom gatherings were new to us all and pro contact was very new to just about all of us. When Steve was asked to answer a few questions he lit everybody's fire by jumping up with a mile-wide smile on his face and saying, "No." We did manage to get Ditko out to his car safely before these information-hungary fans injured him seriously. We dragged him out the main door but not before some fan had gripped his teeth deeply into Steve's leg. This did prove a problem especially later that night when Ditko decided to change his clothes. Rumor has it that the Police Emergency Squad finally separated the two later in the week.

Everybody's friend had to be Big Jack Kirby. He never hesitated in giving interviews. I managed to get a good one from him and was proud to see it in an early COMICOLLECTOR (#9 or 10). I showed fellow fans Ron Fradkin and Len Wein copies of the interview and we all laughed to find out Jack had done the same for all three of us. We continued to laugh when we realized all three contained different information in answer to similar questions. We continued to laugh as Bails renewed his protests of me being a liar and now the three of us were accused of trying to dupe fandom. We stopped laughing when we realized it was not fandom but us who were duped...Jack Kirby began laughing.

It was really all good fun and my memories are filled with many pleasant times with the aforementioned folk. Flo Steinberg left Marvel for greener pastures, but she still returns every year to the NY Comicons. This year was no different and nobody could contest her memory. After all these years she still remembered me! Our eyes met across the crowed hall of the Statler Hilton and we both ran to each other at the same time. Her beautiful green eyes opened wide and she exclaimed, "Super-Monkey, I haven't seen you in years."

I wish I were dead.

BY HOWARD P. SIEGEL

FANDOM PROFILE #2.....RAYMOND MILLER.....one of the "original" fans.....fellow staffer on RB-CC.....the "Historian Emeritus of Comiedom". If a popularity contest were held tomorrow, Ray would surely win it hands down based upon the letters from people who credit him with help on their projects and articles. Ray's letter outlining his experiences in fandom was so well written that I am pretty much going to use the first person and quote him direct: Here then, is Raymond Miller...."What made me undertake the tremendous task of answering the questions put to me ? How did it start ? When ? Well, after years of writing articles I just plain got tired of it, and besides, I was running out of things to write about in detail. I hate to do things half way. So a question and answer type thing came to mind. This was one way of passing data on to fans without having to put together a whole article. Then there was the big factor. I wanted to show what I had learned over the years. What fun is it to build files on comics and then keep it to one's self ?

When I entered fandom in 1960, the original Information Center appeared in Robert Jenning's "Comic World", which was written by Bob himself. When "Comic World" folded, Bob moved the Information Center over to "The Comic Reader" (when Glen Johnson was publishing it). When Bob quit, Glen asked me to continue it. I did, right thru until the time Mark Hanerfeld took over "The Comic Reader" and turned it into a newszine. While the Information Center was to continue in "Gosh Wow!", I decided that a regularly published zine was the place for this type of column. And so I made up a short sample for Gordon Love and he printed it. It caught on, and keeps growing and growing.

How vast is my collection ? Well, you caught me at a good time as I just finished taking stock of my Golden Age collection. My 1958 to present collection contains about all Marvel, Charlton, Archie, DC, Harvey & Tower super-hero titles, except for the Superman Family which I haven't bought since 1960. My first love - The Golden Age - I do not collect by runs, years or publishers. I collect all titles and have at least one issue of every title printed from 1940-1944. In some cases, like DC, I have 4-8 issues of every title. I have comics from 25 different publishers totalling 786 issues. How large is my mail ? I average about 3 letters each day during the 3 week period after RB-CC comes out. My favorite current characters are Batman & Capt. America. My comments on the current trend ? Well, it isn't good. I feel that every time a character is dropped there is one less comic for me. I'm not about to buy any of the junk they call horror, S-F or teen comics. Any old time fan will tell you that there was only one horror publisher & S-F publisher - EC ! Biggest thing to strike the industry was Charlton's dropping of their action-hero line. After that, except for Marvel, it has been all down hill. We can never recover the loss of the Spectre, Hawkman, Atom, etc.

Personal data : I live in Indiana County, which is the Xmas Tree capitol of the world, out in the country some 14 miles outside the nearest big town of Indiana, Pa. I've always been interested in comics, but it wasn't until 1960 that I discovered I wasn't alone in this. About 1961 I started to write to Jerry Bails and have been in fandom ever since. Some months back I began to get interested in collecting comic character toys. There you have it Howard....."

Indeed I do Ray, and how so does all of fandom. Thanks for a really great profile. You might like to know that FANDOM PROFILE #3 will feature a fan that insisted I give you maximum credit for helping him, and encouraging him in his great research and publishing efforts. I'm speaking of MIKE NOLAN.....in RB-CC #68.

Invitations are being sent out shortly to Biljo White, Dick Hoffman and Bill Spicer. I hope they'll allow themselves to be profiled.

DOES YOUR COLLECTION INCLUDE.....the costumed super heroes of the '50's ? Fighting American, Captain Comet (Strange Adventures), Capt. Flash, Nature Boy, The Avenger, Pvt. Strong (The Shield), Apex's The Flame, Black Cobra, or Marvel Boy.

THE SUPERMAN STORY.....from Michael Halprin, as promised last issue. First, here's Mike's specifications on the weight and height of the Superman magazine :

#1-22	(64 pages)	4 lbs.	4⅜"
23-27	(56 pages)	⅜ lb.	3/4"
28-78	(48 & 52)	5⅜ lbs.	3⅜"
79-96	(40 pages)	2⅜ lbs.	2-3/4"
97-220	including giants	16⅜ lbs.	16⅜"
		28-3/4 lbs.	27⅝"

A CURIOUS THING.....the first reprint of a Superman story did not appear in Superman Annual #1. It appeared in Superman #3, Winter, 1940. The reprint came from Action #5, Oct. 1938.

The only person who might have aged in the Superman Family is Perry White. In the 1940's he had dark hair and looked about 45. Wayne Boring aged Perry shortly after taking over the pencilling work.

Last thing. The first editor of Superman was Vincent A. Sullivan.

Sorry Ray if I stole a little of your thunder. You'd be right if you thought to yourself that this sort of paragraph belongs in the Information Center.....

QUIZ TIME ! .....and thanks to ROB MAISCH of Midland, Mich. for this contribution. Rob's good thinking has set up a general pattern for future quizes of this sort. The idea is to match up the super-villian with his alter ego. The first six correct replies get the vinyl comic envelopes. If you think it's a cinch, remember that out of some 48 responses to the newspaper strip quiz that appeared two issues ago, there were only two correct entrants. The general consensus was that the quiz was easy ! Marvel fans should enjoy this :

1. Melter	A. Arthur Parks
2. Black Knight	B. Max Dillon
3. Electro	C. Flint Marko
4. Mr. Fear	D. Ivan Kragoff
5. Whirlwind	E. Mac Gargen
6. Juggernaut	F. Zolton Drago
7. Centurius	G. Simon Williams
8. Red Ghost	H. Dave Cannon
9. Living Laser	I. Bruno Horgan
10. Titanium Man	J. Comrade Bullski
11. Scorpion	K. Cain Marko
12. Sandman	L. Nathan Garrett
13. Wonder Man	M. Noah Black

DETROIT TRIPLE FAN FAIR 1970.....WILL BE HELD OVER THE Labor Day weekend next year. This is to avoid any problems that may arise for those making plans to attend the New York Con, or the european con.

THE COLLECTORS GUIDE.....Volume I will include a 65 page index to all costumed heroes appearing in magazines from 1934-1947, listing all appearances of strips thru to their demise. Also, it will have over 60 cover photos of rare issues, and front and back covers done by Richard Buckler. Info on artists & writers, origins, cross-overs, premiums & reprint appearances included. THIS IS A MUST FOR ALL FANS. Send a S.A.S.E. to JERRY AND JEAN BAILS, The Panelologists, 487 Lakewood Blvd., Detroit, Mich. 48215 for further info.....

A WISE INVESTMENT.....would be MIKE NOLAN'S 3rd & 4th efforts - The Timely-Marvel-Atlas Index and the MLJ-Radio Index. Mike includes in both a guide for collecting well rounded samples of both publishers on a limited budget basis. In the MLJ Index he covers all characters, not just the costumed heroes, as well as a history of Radio Comics. From time to time short quizes based upon his indexes will be printed here.....and this is one of them.....

CAN YOU NAME.....the costumed super heroes from the Golden Age MLJ line who did not make an appearance in Mighty Crusaders #1 ? To help Mike get out of the financial hole, I will award six comic envelopes to the first 12 people who answer correctly. There is no time limit on this quiz. Your answers will count even if they come in after the RB-CC ad deadline, providing your letter is among the first 12 correct ones.....

BOOK REPORT FOR THE COMPLETIST.....whether your specialty is comics, pulps, magazines, movies, radion, or character toys and premiums. Get Time-Life's "This Fabulous Century" volume 4, covering the years 1931-1940. On pages 10 & 11 there's a picture entitles "A Midwest Newstand, Nov. 1938" that is truly an example of the adage "one picture is worth 1000 words". For the radio fan there is a goodly portion of the actual script from the Mercury Theater H.G. Wells Classic of June 5th, 1938; as well as a typical weekly radio schedule for same week. The sections covering the movies, toys and premiums and newspaper comic strips is good too !

FIELD REPORT.....the Tower "Thunder Agents Collectors Issue" did very well saleswise, perhaps because most of us welcomed the opportunity of buying a mag from a publisher other than Marvel and DC. I believe a change of diet is so desired by many of us that even AOH and Radio would be accepted.

IMAGINATION.....is all you need to appreciate the Squadron Sinister's appearance in Avengers #69. Look at the respective costumes and see if there is a full or partial similarity to Golden Age heroes and/or villians. For instance, didn't Dr. Spectrum remind you of Dr. Spectro (Capt. Atoms #79 & 81 issues). Or Nighthawk of Crackajack's Owl. The Whizzer had a visor like Goliath I and a shoulder & chest covering like Giant Man's second costume. As for Hyperion, he wore a chest emblem similar to Capt. Atom's, metal trunks like Steel Sterling.....

NEW POLICY ON PRIZES.....when CCC first started, correct answers were rewarded with 3 comic envelopes. This was upped to 4. As of this issue, the new total will be 6, which is $1.50 in value. There will also be some quizes which will bear no next issue deadline. This will give everyone that invests a six cent stamp and some time a chance to cash in on the goodies. The new comic envelopes will be both all clear on both sides so that two issues can be showcases (front & back) with the remaining 8 in between; and with a turquoise back to give the package some color.....

ALLEY AWARDS 1968.....Stan Lee can reward himself with some extra sourballs. Marvel walked away with 21 first places (including ties) out of the 23 categories they were eligible in. Some short notes. The strip most desired for revival was my beloved Adam Strange, a personal satisfaction that came true. Runner up was Eisner's The Spirit, and I hope that the same success would happen for it as did Adam.....

NO SOONER.....does Fandom Profile #1 on Jerry Bails appear in RB-CC - along comes JLA #77. I refer you to the letters page and the editor's postscript to "Mr. Panelologist's" comments....

LEST WE FORGET.....RB-CC is not published in Denmark or Sweden; and a goodly number of readers are youngsters. Several ads have appeared in the last several issues that make me suggest a self-imposed code amongst you advertisers that believe nude women and the like have anything to do with comic collecting. This sort of thing went out with EC - so if you're selling a fanzine or adzine may I suggest that your ad be devoid of such unneeded symbolism.....Amen !! I am sure G.B. agrees with me here.....

YEAR END REPORT.....as promised last issue. Here we go : 1969 superceded the previous year in achieving a dismal record. Publishers will tolerate no title that cannot show a profit. There are no exceptions ! Superman and Batman included.

Economics determines the course of the comic book field now more than ever. I have read issues with 10 pages of ads. A publisher would gladly double that if he could - and order his editors to cut down on their stories and plots accordingly.

The key word this year was "revival". The aim was to cater to a new generation of buyers by reviving the trends of 20 years ago - science fiction, horror, teen humor. Super heroes were sacrificed in profusion to make room, especially at DC where the likes of Hawkman & Atom bit the dust. Marvel and DC dipped heavily into their reprint file for quickly available material from the '50's and to fill out their annuals. At Marvel especially, the format of at least some new material in their 25¢ issues was non-existant. Whether this pattern will continue into 1970 is speculative since both publishers are still uncertain as to which direction they will take.

Marvel's main problem seems to be that they have spread themselves too thin. By that I mean that their schedules are greater than their manpower. With the new S-F & humor titles, it seems logical that some titles in the super-hero line will be dropped in 1970, others reverted to bi-monthlies. To grade the super-hero line for 1969 is frustrating. Individually, all titles ran hot and cold in spurts, so that in the final analysis I could not give Marvel a negative or possative rating. Specifically however, Neal Adam's take over of X-Men was a rbight spot, Capt. Marvel's continued failure despite the Billy Batson-Shazam innovation was a minus point. The crossovers continued in profusion, and I strongly believe that Marvel has lost a good deal of the commanding position it had in the 1966-1968 years when top gun in the comic book field.

At DC several experiments were tried. Most were successful. Wonder Woman became stale. Sales slipped, but they could not give up on her. A successful, updated change bore fruit. The same is being tried with Metal Men. Batman (believe it or not) has been revamped. Adam Strange was brought back and Strange Adventures may became a top notch entry in the DC stable. Several Batman Brave & Bold Teamups were excellent and should be entire nominees for the 1969 Alley Awards (Sgt. Rock, Deadman). Showcases of triple issues in that title to date haven't been earth shattering. Kupert concentrated on covers, Green Lantern is going rote, Flash could use a Fox-Infantino injection. Aquaman is much improved since the Giordano-Aparo-Skeates Charlton Alumni took it over. In 1970 I look for more reprints, character-title shifts and perhaps more experiments until National learns which direction to take.

Although the production line is diminishing, I don't feel that the picture will be as bad as some fans expect it to be. I believe the quality of the bigger names will improve.....

OPEN LETTER TO OUR EDITOR.....Dear G.B.; I believe many readers would welcome a regular editors page or at least a few paragraphs from you in the vein of your opening paragraph in the letters section of RB-CC #65. Stan has his soapbox.....why not you ?

PERSONAL DEPARTMENT.....many fans have written to me suggesting that I print inside information in CCC. Although I am fortunate to infrequently having access to advanced data, this column is not akin to a newszine. Many times rumors are just that. A perfect example is this : about 6 months ago I was told that Deadman would be revived in a new DC title. A few months later a darn good newszine told its readers that the name of the new title was "From Beyond The Unknown", and that Deadman would return in issue #2. This never happened. If I printed my information, many of you would be very angry after spending 15¢ and much anticipation to learn that my "scoop" was a bit of false info.....

MAIL DEPARTMENT.....I'm a bit disappointed in the response this issue. As a result of poor mail, everyone that entered the quizes posted in RB-CC #65 is a winner. Here we go :

MANS BEST FRIEND.....JOHN ELLIS of W. Palm Beach, Fla. came up with 16 canines who helped super-heroes. He mentioned Superboy's Krypto, Ace the Bathound, Rex the Wonder Dog, Pooch from Our Fighting Forces, Lassie (Dell Pubs), Walt Disney's Pluto (yes, he helped Mickey on a number of ocassions), Peanuts' Snoopy (he's still after the Red Baron), the Phantom's Devil, Nightro's Blackie, and Rang-A-Tang (Blue Ribbon Comics)....

SWIFTNESS.....in sending in their answers to the speedsters quiz has made winners of BRUCE KAYE, Acton, Mass. & JOHN ELLIS. They came up with the three Flashes, Speed Centaur, Johnny Quick, Qaulity's Quicksilver, Timely's Whizzer, Novelty's Twister, New Friday's Silver Streak, Hillman's Zippo, Marvel's Quicksilver, New Friday's Meteor, between them.

BRAIN TEASERS.....The Sentinel (Liberty Scouts Comics) wore a Revolutionary War period costume, as the Comicollectors Handbook II would have told you. It did for BRUCE and JOHN, who cleaned up with the comic envelopes and Marvel Super Hero Mini-Pennants for their efforts. They both names Wildfire and his shield of fire (Smash Comics), for the first part of the quiz.

ADDITIONS.....to lists from previous issues.....Jodhpur Derby: Cap'n Bijo White's "The Eye". Motorcycle Maniacs: Wildcat's Catocycle. Thanks again JOHN ELLIS.....

NEXT ISSUE.....a fandom profile.....a DC super villians alter ego/name quiz..... the newspaper comic strip quiz that was supposed to appear in this issue.....and more.....see ya'....

DEADLINE FOR THE MARVEL SUPER-HERO ALTER EGO/NAME QUIZ IS THE AD DEADLIN E POSTED IN THE FRONT OF THIS ISSUE....ALL ANSWERS AND CONTRIBUTIONS SHOULD BE SENT TO 95 SEDGWICK AVENUE, YONKERS, N.Y. 10705.....

COMPLETE GOLDEN AGE TIMELY-MARVEL & MLJ COMIC BOOK INDEXES

After almost five years of research, complete issue by issue indexes of all Golden Age Timely-Marvel (1939-1955) and MLJ (1947-1939) are now in print for the first time! Highly readable. More than 200 fans have already ordered these indexes and the supply is limited. I had only 500 of each printed, due to very high printing costs.

Both the MLJ and Timely indexes list each and every super hero comic published by those famous firms during the Golden Age of Comics... and they index the comics individually! Issue #'s, dates, characters, story titles and page lengths are given for all the great costume hero adventure classics published by Timely and MLJ, except two of the leaders in the field. This has never been done before.

In addition, there are 22 general indexes and cross-reference source index pages -- plus plenty of notes explaining oddities, number mixups, and other problems facing the collector. And, there are special text sections devoted to collecting Timely and MLJ. Both indexes are photo offset, highly readable, with beautiful covers by Rudy Franke, one of fandom's leading artists. These indexes ARE have been a special project for a long time and I've done all I could to make them loaded with info.

Perfect for the collector -- you need never have doubts while buying your comics. Know what you are going to buy -- know what you want to collect -- systematically. Don't guess!

The price, as before, is $1.25 for the Timely Index and $1.00 for the MLJ index. Or, better yet, order them both for $2.00, passing along postage and envelope savings costs to you.

Also still available -- about 53 copies, at this writing, of the original Golden Age Super Hero Index -- a general listing of the super heroes of the nine leading O.A. Pix Companies. A lot of fans ordered this from my last ad, and when this one is sold out I don't plan to reprint. So if you want one, send 60¢ -- but hurry.

Plus -- the Nedor Comic N Index -- identical in format to the Timely and MLJ indexes listed above, the Nedor Index lists each and every super hero comic published by Better Publications, one of the most underrated of all Golden Age publishers. Again, with a pretty Franke cover, the price is 75¢.

When ordering, please enclose 15¢ extra per index if you want first class postage -- and thank you for the good response. If enough fans respond, I may be able to continue the index series.

--- ATTENTION ---

Tho I hate to do it, I feel I must call attention to a deal which was transacted recently. I sent Arnold Meyrowitz of Belle Harbor, New York $45 and a large batch of comics for which I was to receive a cash refund and some comics in trade. This deal was made in August and at the date of this writing (Nov. 3) I still have not received my end of the trade. I would not be as worried had I not heard that several other fans have also had trouble with this fellow. I have a cancelled check from him as proof of my payment but nothing else. I would advise all to beware of Arnold Meyrowitz and not to deal with him.

THE ROCKET'S BLAST

Special number 7

THE END OF AN ERA

THIS IS THE ONE ALL OF YOU E.C. FAN-ANTICS HAVE BEEN WAITING FOR

William Parente (professional writer and editor) takes an indepth look at the old E.C. line. He explores and discusses it's faults and weaknesses, but more importantly, he tells why E.C. has never been matched for pure quality. Along with Bill's fine feature-length article, R.B. SPECIAL #7 contains reproductions of E.C. art by Wally Wood, Joe Orlando, Roy Krenkel, Jack Davis, and Al Williamson. Plus a photo of Wally Wood. To top it off, we managed to have pro artist John Fantucchio draw a beautiful 7-color front cover for this issue and believe me, it is in the TRUE EC tradition. And the back cover, also in full color, is by Buddy Saunders, one of fandom's best.

For each copy of THE ROCKET'S BLAST SPECAIL #7 you want, send 75¢ to:

SEASONS GREETINGS TO ALL!!

NEW POLICY First I want to thank all of you for the enthusiastic response to my ad last issue. Since there have been no complaints about the merch, I am now instituting a FIVE DAY RETURN PRIVILEDGE on all items listed. Of course I still prefer checks to be certified, or money orders. However, if this is too inconvenient and you don't mind waiting until your checks clear, I will accept your personal check. There won't be a delay if you've ordered from me before or if I know you. All prices include postage and insurance, as always. Many of the listings are the same as last issue as I fell into a batch of these very unusual items, and still have a few of these left, BUT, look closely for new surprises! Please send payment with order.

"THE GOLDEN AGE OF RADIO"

The Radio Tape Department of The SFCA has just gotten in some additional radio programs. In order to speed up our service to you, we encourage you to order either our "B" reels (2 hr) or our "C" reels (4 hrs) instead to picking out a show here and there. These special reels contain specific shows and we can record them much faster for you instead of jumping around picking out several shows which may be spread out over several different master tapes. These special reels are also much cheaper. You can still order individual shows and just pick out the titles you want (the price of each individual show is listed in () beside each show) as long as you order a minimum of 1 hr. All tapes are recorded on 7 inch reels at 3 3/4 ips (we can record at 1 7/8 if you specify it). We can record on 5 or 3 inch reels IF you supply the empty reels. All tapes we record on 3 or 4 inch reels, we record at 1 7/8 ips unless you specify 3 3/4 ips. Send all orders to RADIO TAPE DEPT., 9875 SW 212 ST., MIAMI, FLA.
The running time listed for each show is only approximate and may vary a little. Sound condition on all the shows on this page is good to very good.
These are all radio shows unless otherwise indicated.

COMIC WHOLESALER: R.J. BANKS, P.O. BOX B, CORSICANA, TEXAS 75110

THANKS for your fine response to my recent wholesale and retail offerings. The RB-CC readership is certainly the best market I've found, considering both rates and responses. I must request that you not order anything else from my retail ad in #65. The few remaining unsold items will be offered again in my next retail ad. As of this writing I'm losing money in postage for returning unfillable orders; if you order from my retail ad in #66 PLEASE list alternates as the comics listed there are going fast. Further, my wholesale items are reduced due to stock shortages until further notice.

WHOLESALE (Please add $2 for postage and handling to any order for less than $20 worth of this mdse.)

1. Marvel and DC Super-hero comics only, 1967-70 issues. Fair proportions from each publisher and year. My choice only $11 per100
2. Other publishers' Super-hero comics, plus miscellaneous types (horror, funnies, adventure, etc., including some from Marvel and or DC, but none of their super-heroes), 1967-70 issues. Fair proportion regarding dates. My choice only $6 per 100.
3. Marvel and DC Super-hero giants/annuals, 1964-69 (excluding first issues). Fair proportions from each publisher and year. $11 per 50; my choice only. HURRY on these as not many are left.
4. All publishers' damaged/faulty/imperfect reg. 12¢ or 10¢ size comics (including some Marvel & DC super-heroes and others). Most have only minor flaws; all have both covers & I think are missing no pages. 1963-69 (with a few even earlier). My choice only $6 per 100.

All these wholesale offerings allow you to buy in quantity for less than the prices printed on the covers. Also, any dealer or individual who will order as much as $50-worth at one time may discount 10%

MY WANTS (All items I buy or trade for must be in Good-to-better Condition, with both covers and all pages)

Payment I offer in three different ways: (1) credit for your wholesale purchases from me in one of the categories listed above; (2) somewhat less credit on your retail purchases from my offerings in RB-CC #66 and later issues; (3) even less cash (check) sent promptly. Write me describing what you are sending and which type of payment you prefer; then mail what you have to sell/trade at once.

COLLECTORS, IF YOU ARE NEW TO THIS FASCINATING HOBBY, YOU CAN USE ONE OF MY WHOLESALE CATEGORIES (OR ALL OF THEM) TO PROVIDE YOURSELF A SORT OF "STARTER KIT" AT LOW COST. YOU'LL FIND SOME COMICS YOU'LL WANT TO KEEP IN YOUR COLLECTION, PLUS MANY OTHERS YOU CAN EASILY TRADE FOR COMICS YOU STILL NEED. If you are a veteran collector, you can still get a whole pile of good "trade bait" in recent comics at a favorable price. And if you have a few old comics you don't want, you can trade them to me on very favorable terms as part payment for a wholesale purchase. Or on favorable terms as part or full payment for some/one of my retail bargains. Or even for a modest amount of cash.

DEALERS JOIN THE MANY OTHERS WHO HAVE ADDED TO THEIR INVENTORIES THROUGH A WHOLESALE PURCHASE FROM MY STOCK. YOU CAN BUILD UP YOUR INVENTORY AT VERY LITTLE COST AND ADD MANY COMICS THAT YOU CAN MAKE A GOOD PROFIT ON EVENTUALLY. Another important thing to consider is the opportunity I open to you for STOCK ROTATION: Trade me those old but slow selling titles like DAFFY, the various ARCHIEs, war comics & true crime for more recent comics that you'll have to list for less, but which will move much more rapidly. You can only make money on stock that sells!

REMEMBER: YOUR COMIC WHOLESALER IS R.J. BANKS, BOX B, CORSICANA, TEX.75110 READY, WILLING & ABLE TO SUPPLY YOUR NEEDS!

THE RB- INFORMATION CC CENTER

Well here we are again. Time sure does fly doesn't it? Just a sample of what we have going here is, I received a flood of mail after I sent Gordon the 12 pages for issue #66. So much of this Info Center will be typed up before #66 is even sent to the printers. I try to match my deadline with Gordon's advertising deadline so anything I receive about a week to ten days before that deadline and after that deadline will be one issue late. But enough of that, so let's get to the questions.

Gary W. Behymer would like to see a check list of the artist for each issue of Classics Illustrated. Come on fans, start sending me this data to work on. Then Gary has these questions:

1. Where is Robert Jennings, former Editor of that Limbo Fanzine of early fandom...Comic World?
   I don't know...are you still out there Bob? LATE NEWS. BOTH BOB AND COMIC WORLD ARE BACK.
2. Is Nostalgia Press really printing E.C. reprints?
   That is what I've heard.
3. What is Will Eisner doing now. I know he does work for the Armed forces. What else?
   Right now I don't know, but figure about the same thing he was doing three years ago. A full time business man primarily engaged in publishing semi-technical instruction manuals. The principal client of his firm , American Visuals Corporation, is the Dept. of the Army, for which he turns out PS, a monthly magazine that explains and encourages the proper maintenance of equipment in words, diagrams and comic strip sequences. He produces similar material for industry and other governmental agencies. He also owns two other enterprizes, Educational Corporation and IPD Publishing Co.
4. Is Al Williamson working for any comic companies?
   He was to do some covers for DC.
5. What M.E. titles besides Undercover Girl did Ogden Whitney do work for?
   Skyman, of course, and Manhunt Comics.

Greg Krolikowski askes these questions:

1. What was the number of the last Comic Cavalcade?
   I really don't know but do know there was a #41.
2. Which superhero strips were run in Comic Cavalcade after #29?
   #29 was the last issue for superheroes. #30 on were cartoon and funny animal type strips.
3. What were the titles of the first few Plastic Man comics by Quality which were not numbered and which was the first Plastic Man to bear a number?
   The first two issues were un-numbered and dated 1944. Both contained four stories. One was called "Gay Nineties Nightmare" which I beleive was #2 while #1 was "Game of Death". The third issue was dated Spring 1946 and the last issue was #64 NOV-1956

To the question many have asked me:"Is The Comic Reader dead?" The answer is NO.

George Schwartz, Editor of INFO has a few questions to ask:

1. What is the date and number of the Marvel Mystery with HT and Conquest of Death and SM and Pawns of Destiny?
   ~~I don't know. Can anyone help?~~ This is #72 May 1946.
2. Crime Smasher "1 is dated Summer 1948. What is the comic, it's number and date in which Spy Smasher changes to Crime Smasher and what was the reason for the change?
   Spy Smasher became Crime Smasher in Whiz #76 July 1946. SS fought spies and enemy agents during the war which was now over so Alan Armstrong became Crime Smasher to battle crooks and criminals.
3. What is the date and number of the Daredevil comic that contains:
   DD - Do your part...DD is doing his. (Biro)
   13 & Jinx - Mystery of the Everglades..Chapter one?
   This is Number 10 May 1942.
4. What issue and date is this Scoop Comic?
   Master Key goes after a female Nazi, Rocket Man tackles a fiendish killer and Mother Hubbard fights ogres for the possession of children's eyes?
   Again can anyone help. I do know it isn't #1, George.

Jerry Lindsay has these questions:

1. Did Astonishing #3, by Atlas, feature Marvel Boy? If so was it the same one as in Marvel Boy Comics?
   George Detrow tells us that Russ Heath did Marvel Boy in Marvel Boy I and 2. With #3 the title became Astonishing and Marvel Boy was in 3 and 4 and likely issues after that. Bill Everett did the art in Astonishing.
2. I have a copy of X-Men #50, but it has a double cover. I also have Daredevil #1 (by Marvel), but pages 3,4,6,7,8,11,16,22,23 and on, some adds, the pages only have one side margin. Would this be considered an oddity? If so what would be their value?
   Double covers is nothing new and those pages in DD are just a bad cut so not really oddities. A double cover would be worth a few pennies more.
3. Would the 132 page 1950 comic, Variety Comics #1 with Blue Beetle be considered a rare comic.
   Not really.
4. What was DC's Big All-American about?
   This was a 128 page one-shot published in 1944 and feature single stories of Wonder Woman, Green Lantern, Flash, Hawkman, Scribbly, Atom, Little Boy Blue, Johnny Thunder, Hop Harrigan, The Whip, Ghost Patrol, Mr.Terrific, Wildcat, Pint Size Pete, Bulldog Drummond and Mutt and Jeff, Now Jerry, that is a rare one.
5. What comic book contained the character Fantoman?
   This character, originally called Fantom of the Fair, appeared in Amazing Mystery Funnies 10-22 and Fantoman 1-3.

Ray Stanich wants to know in what issues of Crackajack Funnies Ellery Queen appeared in? He was-issues 23 thru 42. Does anyone know if Queen ever appeared in Popular Comics?
Can anyone give me a list of the Ray Bradbury stories that EC printed and in what issues they appeared, for Ray Stanich?

David Thomas asks: Who were the originators of Superman and Batman.
Superman was originated by Jerry Siegel & Joe Shuster and Batman by Bob Kane and I beleive Bill Finger.
Yes David, Gardner Fox is also a Science Fiction writer.

Many fans have asked for an Adam Strange Check List and thanks to Michael Clark, George Detrow and Mike Nolan we were able to do one. Art wise Mike Sekowsky did the Showcase issues, Carmen Infantino did Mystery in Space 53-91 and I beleive Lee Elias did the rest. Garnder Fox wrote most.

Doug Martin wants answers to these questions.....

1. Which issues of World's Finest featured the following: Zatara, Red, White and Blue, Lando, Johnny Thunder, Boy Commandos, Tommy Tomorrow and the Wyoming Kid?
   Zatara 1-41,43-45,47-51
   Red, White & Blue 1-7
   Lando 1-7
   Johnny Thunder 1-3
   Boy Commandos 8-41
   Tommy Tomorrow 102-124
   Wyoming Kid 42-64
2. What others were in WF and which issues (except Superman, Batman, Sandman, Crimson Avenger, Green Arrow)?
   Besides lesser known strips there were...The King 1-5,8, TnT #5, Aquaman #6, Star Spangled Kid 6-18, Hop Harrigan #4, Tomahawk 33-35,65-88,90-101, Tom Sparks 49-58, Drafty 1-3,6-14, Johnny Everyman 15-26,28,30.
3. What were the titles of the Superman and Batman stories in WF #1? #1 was titled World's Best and the Superman story had no title. Batman was "The Witch and the Manuscript of Doom."
4. What features were dropped in Detective because of page reductions? Nothing was dropped when Detective went from 68 pages to 60. Spy was dropped with #83 and Crimson Avenger with #89 which was probably the last 60 page issue.

Then from Richard Llewellyn:

1. Does Frank Robbins draw "Johnny Hazard"?
   Yes he does. I didn't even know this strip was still printed.
2. What strips did Alex Raymond start other than Flash Gordon, Jungle Jim, Rip Kirby and Secret Agent X-9?
   That was it.
3. What was Neal Adams' first story and who published it?
   I beleive it was in Creepy #14 for April 1967.
4. What companies has Adams worked for and when ?
   Warren, Marvel and DC and all within the past three years.
5. Was Marvel Mystery #1 Marvel's first comic book?
   Yes it was.

These are from Rob Maisch. Sorry I've mis-spelled your name the last few issues Rob.

1. How many issues did Yellow Claw Comics run and was the Yellow Claw a villain back then also?
   Yes he was a villain and Hardy Seaborn says there were at least four issues.
2. Was Brave & the Bold #79 the first issue of the magazine that Haney and Adams worked on together.
   Yes it was.

3. Does Charlton have any plans to revive any of their action heroes?
   Not that I know of.
4. Is The Comic Reader dead?
   This is a popular question Rob. It isn't supposed to be but I wonder at times. There may just be no news to print in it.
(SEE BOTTOM OF PAGE ONE - LATE NEWS)

Two oddities from Rob also:
In Capt. Atom #82, the Ghost's true identity was said to be that of Alec Nois. But in The Return of the Ghost (#85,86,89) he is called Ales Rois.
In Agent of S.H.E.I.L.D. #5, we never did find out what The Pickman was after in Fury's behalf.

Here are a couple of questions I'd like answered:
1. Did any manufacturer, from 1964 to the present, ever manufacture any sort of mechanical toy (wind-up) based on DC's super heroes- and, if so, what, when and who?
2. Also does anyone know if there was a Yankee Comic 5 and 6, Scoop after #3, Dynamic 6 or?, Punch 5,6,or? or a Bullseye before #11. Those are all Dynamic Publications.

Alan Nagel says; "I recently purchased a first issue Harvey comic entitled "The Spirit". I noticed a remarkable resemblance between the art in this 1966 comic, and the original Will Eisner art of 1941. In this comic, all stories are copyrighted by him, and all credit is given to him, presumably, because he still owns the rights. Word has gotten around that MR. Eisner had nothing to do with this comic; thus, the following questions:
1. Did Eisner contribute, in anyway, to this Harvey Comic/
2. And who wrote and illusterted this comic/
3. And how many issues did it run?
   Saying Will Eisner had nothing to do with this comic, and there were two issues, is like saying Batman never heard of Robin. The Spirit is still owned by Eisner and almost all the stories in #1 and #2 are Eisner/Spirit Sunday reprints from 1947 - 1950. In #1, the lead story was new and supposed to have been drawn by Wood. The Spirit's Lab was also new. The rest of the book was reprints. The same thing goes for #2. While I don't have all dates, the forth story in #1 (after the Spirit's Lab) is Feb.13, 1949, Rat-Tat is Sept. 4, 1949, next one is Sept. 11, 1949. In #2 the second story "Plaster of Paris is Nov. 7, 1948, next story is Feb.27, 1949, then the hair cut one is Oct. 22, 1950, Story of Sam is Sept. 17, 1950, next one is Oct. 10, 1948, then the next is Nov. 19, 1950. The Halloween story is Oct. 31,1948. There was to be a third issue but it never came out. All stories in 1 and 2 were written by Eisner.

George Morris would like to know if anyone knows the approximate value of the first five issues of Hoo Hah, an E.C. fanzine put out by Arch Goodwin about 1955 and Concept #1 and 2 put out by Ron Parks at the same time? Also where might he obtain the complete E.C. Checklist by Fred Von Bernewitz?

George Morris and Lamar Haylock have this data on Tor.
In 1952 Joe Kubert and Norman Maurer were hired to work as co-editors of a new company called Jill Archer St. John. When they first started they published regular comic books. There were six issues of Tor Comics and there were two Tor #2 and both were 3-D and dated Oct and

Nov. 1953. Issues 1, 3, 4 and 5 were regular comics. Other St. John comics that appeared in 3-D form were The Three Stooges, Whack, House of Terror and Mighty Mouse. Tor 3-D #2 also had art by Bob Powell and Russ Heath.

Hardy Seaborn askes:
1. What was the date of Tales of Suspense #1 and Tales to Astonish #1?
   Suspense and Astonish #1's were both Jan. 1959
2. What are the first comics ever published by Timely, DC, EC and Charlton?
   Charlton I don't know but for EC I'd guess at the "Picture Stories From ..." (Bible etc). Timely's first title was Marvel Mystery #1 Nov. 1939 and DC's was New Fun (More Fun) #1 Feb. 1935.
3. Can anyone answer these for Hardy? Which issue of JIM featured Thor captured by the Reds and who drew Kid Colt #2 and 3 and Two Gun Kid #2?

From Brian Madigan: Addition to The Martian Manhunter Checklist. Besides his appearances in Detective 225-315, B & B 50 and 56 and in the JLA,he was also in House of Mystery 143-173.
CORRECTION: In #64 I said Writers get $8 per story and artists 25 dollars per story. This should read per page. But Gary Groth tells me artists now get $45 per page.

Then Brian has these questions....
1. Why were this years Marvel King Size Specials all reprints and why isn't Marvel Super Heroes introducing any new heroes any more? For one I think the super hero is fading and it is a lot cheaper to reprint stories then to use new stories. Anyone know the real story behind this?
2. Any chance of Steranko taking over SHIELD again?
   No! SHIELD is dead.
3. I have a coverless Batman comic. The lead story is "The Strange Case of the Diabolical Puppet Master". What issue is it?
   This is issue #3 Fall 1940

Dennis O'Klebe tells me...In answer to Bob Cuniglio, you stated that Adventure Comics preceded Detective Comics by 15 or 16 months.This is not true. Detective Comics #1 was dated March 1937. Adventure #1 was dated Oct. 1937. As a matter of fact, That's where the letters DC (for Detective Comics) originated.
I don't know where you got your information...true DC does stand for Detective Comics but Detective didn't come before Adventure. Adventure #1 was dated Dec. 1935 and not Oct. 1937. However #1-31 were known as New Adventure.

Jim W. Higgs would like a printing history of all John Carter of Mars Comic book appearances. HELP!!
1. Does National have any plans to start an all Nightmaster comic?
   Not that I know of.
2. How many issues of the following comics were there?
   Of the ones asked; Anthro (6), Beware the Creeper (6), Capt. Action (5), Bomba (5?), Secret Six (7), Plastic Man (10?), Hawk and the Dove (6) and Sea Devils. Last title I can't answer.
3. How many issues of The Phantom were published by King and GK, how many Mandrake by King?
   George Detrow says The Phantom was in Gold Key for 17 issues, then King from #18 to 28. From #30 up to now by Charlton. I don't know if there was a 29 or not. Mandrake was in King for 10 issues, as far as I know.

4. Could you tell me how many comics were issued under the following titles and if they were changed to new titles what were they and how many were issued?
WE NEED HELP ON THIS. Tarzan was published by Dell for at least 130 issues. 138, at least, to the present are by GK so the change came between 130 and 138. So fans, what was the last Dell issue? Also need to know same data for Turok, Son of Stone and the last issues of House of Secrets, My Greatest Adventure and Doom Patrol and Mystery in Space. Strange Adventures is still published.

One last thing. Sorry Jim but I know of no index that covers DC, Marvel, Dell or GK from the start to 1968. Watch for Jerry Bails Collectors Guide and get Mike Nolan's Timely Index.

In issue #65, Robert J. Guizzo asked a question about "The Scarecrow of Romney Marsh"....Was it based on fact or fiction. Mr. Wooda N. Carr 123 Crestwood Drive, S.W. Tacoma, Wash. 98498 has this to say:(and I have printed his full address so you might write to him,Mr. Guizzo).

1. Suggest checking the Vol. 1 #3 issue of Castle of Frankenstein in which there appeared an article written by Haywood P. Norton titled "Night Creatures".
2. The story of Dr. Christopher Syn is told in a series of seven paperback novels published in Great Britain by Arrow Books, Ltd., 178-202 Great Portland St. London W1, England. Author: Russell Thorndike.
   1. Dr. Syn on the High Seas.
   2. Dr. Syn Returns.
   3. The Further Adventures of Dr. Syn.
   4. The Courageous Exploits of Dr. Syn.
   5. The Amazing Quest of Dr. Syn.
   6. The Shadow of Dr. Syn.
   7. Dr. Syn.

I have failed after a try of two years to secure a set of these paperbacks from England. I have a set of my own purchased while in Europe but can not understand why we are unable to get copies in the U.S.

It may be of interest to Mr. Guizzo that while on a train travelling from Denmark to London I met a gentleman who actually lived in the area described as Romney Marsh. Yes, the Scarecrow did live and was a smuggler and a person as the TV productions indicated.

If you will write me, Mr. Guizzo, I can give you a lot more data concerning the Scarecrow. (Also if you want to write to me Bob I'll pass Mr. Carr's long letter onto you (I lost your address)..Raymond.

William Morphis wants to know in what issue of Mad Comics a particular cartoon appeared. It was one of the "Hey Look" cartoons in which a a fellow had an egg and was trying to decide how to cook it.He boiled it but then couldn't remove the shell. He pounds on it and shoots it with a gun but no luck so he swallowed it "Alive". What issue is it? George Detrow has the answer: The issue of MAD that carried the story "Hey Look" was #7, Oct-Nov. 1953. The art was by Kurtzman. This issue also carried Sherrlock Shomes by Elder, Treasure Island by Severin, Operation Under-The-Ground (Chapter 2) Text, Smilin' Melvin by Wood.

Jerry Scalley has these four questions:

1. In which issues of Silver Streak did Baron Doom appear opposing Capt. Battle?
   Sorry that I can't answer that one but can say it wasn't in #'s 11,12,13,16,17,18 or 19. C.B was in issues 10 thru 21.
2. Who did the Claw oppose, other then the Ghost, in Daredevil Comics?
   Mostly just the law. Also an assortment of people. No other CCs.
3. Was the comic, Daredevil Battles Hitler #1, a one shot deal or was it numbered as part of the regular series? What characters appeared in DD Vs Hitler?
   This was the first issue of Daredevil Comics and featured DD, Silver Streak, Pirate Prince and Dickie Dean against Hitler and The Claw. Incase you didn't know it DD battled the Claw in Silver Streak #7 thru 11.
4. Please list the characters who appeared in Air Fighters Vol.1 #1 Nov. 1941?
   The features were: The Black Commander (cover featured), Tex Trainer..Test Pilot, "Crash" Davis, Pecos Pete, Flying Cadet Jack Dale, The Mosquito, "Mach" Duff Junior Mechanic and The Black Sheep Squadron.
5. Which Issues of Military and Blackhawk had Reed Crandall as the Blackhawk artist.
   I've no info on art as far as the Blackhawk Comic but Crandall did Blackhawk in Military 12-22 and also in most issues of Modern 56-90.

Clay Kimball wants to know:

1. Can you tell me the number of Adventure Comics that contains the Sandman story "The Unholy Dreams of Gentleman Jack"?
   This was issue #85 April 1943.
2. In Silver Streak #9 at the end the the Silver Streak story it says the villain in the next issue would be "IRON JAW". Is this the same Iron Jaw that Crimebuster fought?
   Dick Hoffman says the Iron Jaw who battled S.S. in #10 was not the same one from Boy Comics but a metal robot who was finally destroyed by being thrown off of a building.

Clay also has this oddity: The cover of Startling #27 featured Pyroman and carries the announcment "in this issue-Pyroman...but he was not in that issue.It is the only issue in which he falls to appear during his run in Startling. And did you notice in Young Allies #4 how Betty suddenly changes clothes right in the thick of the action? (I sure did and as Stan Lee would say...that's a woman for you.) But all kidding aside Clay, That Y.A. #4 is some terrific comic, isn't it?

A request: Of late it has been brought to my attention that some of the adds in RB-CC aren't on the up and up. I don't want to print names so am asking you readers who have had bad dealings to please send me the name of the person who you have had the trouble with. If I receive 3 or more complaints concerning any one person then I will put that persons name in the Info Center so others can beware of him. Also explain how you were taken. I don't want complaints like "I sent for a mint comic but only got one in VG condition". Or "The guy took to long to send me my stuff."

Dan Brown says:

1. E.C. Comics group had many comics from science-fiction to humor. Could you tell me the title of each of their comics with the date and numbers in which they began and ended?
   Sorry Bob, but that would take a E.C. Index which I don't have but will give you the data I have and maybe someone can add to it. These are the titles and the last number that I know of.
   -Aces High (1-5), Blackstone (1),Crime Patrol (-16) then became Tales from the Crypt (Crypt of Terror) (17-45), Animal Fables (1-6), Crime Suspenstories (1-27), Dandy (1-7), Extra (1-5), Fat and Slat (1-4), Frontline Combat (1-15),Gunfighter (1-14), Haunt of Fear (1-28), Happy Houlihans (1-2), International (1), Impact (1-5), Land of the Lost (1-7), MD (1-5), Moon Girl (1-9), Mad (1-23), Modern Love (1-5), Panic (1-12), Piracy (1-7), Psychoanalysis (1-4), Picture Stories from American Hystory, Science, Bible,etc, The Photo Fiction titles and the S-F titles, Shock Suspenstories (1-18), Saddle Justice (1-4), Two Fisted Tales (18-41),Tiny Tot (1-9). Valor (1-5), War Against Crime (-11) then became Vault of Horror (12-40), Weird Science (12-15,5-22), Weird Fantasy (13-17,6-22), Weird Science-Fantasy (23-29), Incredible Sciene-Fiction (30-33).
2. Who were the main artists and writers of these comics?
   -Again I'll have to take it off the cuff. The main writers were Al Feldstein and Harvey Kurtzman but most of the artists also did a lot of their own scripts. Artists we had were: Sheldon Moldoff (Shelly) who did Moon Girl, Jack Davis, Johnny Craig, George Evans, Al Peldstein, Harvey Kurtzman, Bill Elder, John Severin, Russ Heath, Joe Kubert, Wally Wood, Joe Orlando, Al Williamson, Frank Frazetta, Reed Crandall, Graham Ingles, Jack Kamen, Angelo Torres, Alex Toth as well as some I can't remember.
3. Could you tell me the main features of the first 23 issues of Mad and why it changed to magazine form?
   -First 23 issues were made up of mostly four stories each issue and were not unlike the stories Mad still uses. Many of the Mad Paperbacks contain stories from 1-23.One of the reasons for the change was to reach a more adult audience.
   Well readers I hope you can add to this.....

From last issue....Jerry Sinkovec tells us the oldest Steve Ditko story he has incountered was "Madam Cyanide and Mister Tricks" in Black Magic #29 Mar.-Apr. 1954. It is a story with a Ditko style very much like the stories he did for Charlton in the late 50's.

Mark Colella wants to know if Gil Kane ever drew Rex,The Wonder Dog and if so for how long and how many issues did this title run. Also Mark wants a list of the Western comics DC has published in the 50's and 60's.
Well Mark I will not be of much help here but I hope some reader will be able to answer that. I do think Gil did do some Rex stories. As for the western titles I do know there were at least 83 issues of Western Comics, 22 of Dale Evans, 6 of Jimmy Wakely (there were more), All Star Western ran till at least #119 and All American Western to 121 and then there is Tomahawk which is still running.

To all you fans who keep asking about Steve Ditko's plans: I have no idea at all what they are.

Fred Hembeck has some questions concerning the newspaper strip "On Stage". When did it start? What were Archie Goodwin's and Alden McWilliams' parts in it? Has there ever been an On Stage comic book?

I don't know when it started nor do I know Goodwins part in it.Help! I beleive McWilliams did backgrounds and I know of no comic book.
Fred's other two questions concern;

1. Whatever happened to the Ditko Blue Beetle comic that was advertised in all the Charlton books, and featured Bb vs the Specter? It was never published.
2. Since Alter Ego has just come out with their tenth issue, could you give us a run down of the first nine issues, naming editors, dates, printing processes and any important information?
   I don't have all the issues but here is what I do have. Maybe someone will fill in the missing issues?

   AE #2 Editor - Jerry Bails Summer 1961 Part 1. The All Winners Squad by Roy Thomas .. The Spectre by Roy and Jerry.

Well, I guess I knew more then I thought.

Daniel Gleno wants to know if Tower plans to bring back any of it's adventure titles?
I can't say,but do know they put out T.H.U.N.D.E.R. Agents #20 - a reprint- a month or so ago.

These from Robert Baldwin;

1. What issue of Action Comics did the "Ultra Humanite" first oppose Superman?
   They first met in Action #14. Also in 17,19,and 20.
2. What issue (either Action or Superman) did Luthor first appear ?
   It was in Action #23.
3. What is the name of the artist(s) who drew for Uncle Scrooge from #1 to about #70? Who does the art now and why the change? The first 73 issues (72 was a reprint and 1-3 were numbered 386, 456, 495) were drawn by Carl Barks whom I beleive retired. I don't know the present artist(s).
4. Did Timely ever put out an Angel Quarterly?
   No they didn't.

David J. Denwood asks?

1. I would like to know when the following Fox comics ran? Rulah and JO JO.
   First: Rulah Comics was originally Zoot Comics. The earliest issue with Rulah that I know was June of 1947 and the last around # 24.
   #7 is the earliest JO JO I know of and it ran till at least #29.
2. When did All Top switch from cartoon animals to adventure strips?
   With #7 July 1947.

3. What other Fox titles were in this series?
There was Blue Beetle from about #47 June 1947 - 60 Aug.1960.
Phantom Lady #13 Aug.1947 - 23. Dagar 14 Feb. 1948- 23. Zago
Jungle Prince #1 in 1948 and Tegra Jungle Princess #1 Aug. 1948.
Re checking, I find there were at least 4 issues of Zago.

Donald D. Ensign has some jungle type questions:
1. Who were the artists that drew Atlas' Lorna, the Jungle Girl and Jann of the Jungle?
Can any fans help? I know Jay Scott Pike did Lorna 15 and Jann 11. Al Williamson did Jann #16 and he and Ralph Mayo did 17. Pike may have done Lorna #4 also.

Clay Kimball has some coverless comics he would like identified:
1. Adventure: Hour Man - Story involves characters in a wax museum and Sandman (old) - The Van Leew Emeralds..possibly 51.
2. Mystery Men: Blue Beetle - Fromme Produce and Green Mask (Manx is the villain. From what you gave me Clay, I'd guess at #26. Lt. Drake was in 1-25 and The Wraith in 27-31 and you didn't list either as being in your issue.
3. Top Notch: Black Hood (the Skull is the villain) and The Firefly vs the Mummy.. Think this would be #18 from the line up you gave me.
4. More Fun: Green Arrow and the Merchant of Menace
Superboy in Good Hunting
Johnny Quick Missing Musicians
Dover & Clover Railroad Roundup
Aquaman Great Goldfish Bowl
This has to be 102, 104-7.
5. Speed: Capt. Freedom and the Purple Parrot Could be a 1944 issue.
6. Capt. Aero: CA & the Beam of Death..Flagman and the Sting of Death. Clay, this would be 10-13.
7. Two Fantastics:One With David with Sub Saunders in Return of the Serpent Lady and Point of Horror the Text story. Other issue with out David has Sub Saunders and the Man who hated the World and The Murder Cloak as the Text story.
8. 3 Detectives: 1. Batman in"Laugh, Town, Laugh"with Joker. 2. Batman "House that was held for Ransom"(Joker). 3. Batman "Laboratory Loot"(Cavalier).
I'd say"#1" was #02.
Please help readers, if you can on those coverless issues.

In BB-CC #66 I was asked the question "Was Wonder Woman ever in a newspaper strip form" and I said no. Well Richard Buigh (hope that is the spelling) informs me that I was wrong. Richard says "The answer is yes and I have proof of the statement. I own a 1945 newspaper The Herold American and it has a strip of Wonder Woman. The strip was by Charles Moulton. I think I would be more careful in answering Questions." Well Richard I try but I can't always be right, that is way I ask readers like yourself for help and corrections. Any ides as to who drew this WW strip? Moulton was only the writer. Was the artist H.G.Peter?

Richard O'Brien has answers to a few questions that appeared in issue 66.
Re Blue Beetle: In Mystery Men #1, The Blue Beetle wore a business suit with a goggle type mask. Although I wouldn't swear to it, I believe I've checked Mystery Men #2 and BB in that issue had a costume that looked more like the one we're all familiar with. Probably Bruce has a reprint of that first Mystery Men story in his BB #1, since BB did reprint. In BB #2, for instance, the BB story that begins on page 49 is from Mystery Men #8. But with two differences: The BB #2 story has somewhat different coloring, and drops the last four panels of the original story for an ad.

-Re Marvel making any changes in it's Golden Age reprints: They sure did. Knives in the original stories were inked out, so that people who originally were stabbed were punched in the reprints. To adjust to the dimensions of todays books, some panels were reduced, some added to. Also some dialogue that would be objectionable in todays books would be changed. Doug Martin asks for examples. In the Sub-Mariner story from Marvel #8 that was reprinted in Marvel Super Heroes #1 take this speech balloon from page 4 in the original (spoken by Namor to escaping lions): "Go on, eat out their black hearts! Gorge yourselves!!!"In the reprint this became "Go on, keep them nice and busy! Enjoy yourselves"
-Re Noel Windrow's question: Actually, the original Daredevil had a yellow and blue costume (in just one issue- Silver Streak #6, in which DD made his first appearance) and had an infirmity similar to the new DD's-- He had no power of speech due to torture inflicted upon him by thugs who'd murdered his parents. Yes Richard- but with SS #7 he not only could speak but his costume was now red and blue and he was battling The Claw whom he would fight every issue thru #11.
-For Alan Braun: Jack Kirby also worked for TEM Publications (Crash Comics) in 1940.
- and speaking of reprints: DC's reprint of the first Batman story (Det #27) is really strange. Some of it seems to be actually redrawn; perhaps inked from a weak photocopy of the original. Some drawings look just like the original. Others are obviously different versions. ANYONE KNOW technically just how DC did this?

Bruce Hamilton asks: "You say "Wee Pals" was the first integrated comic strip (in the modern sense, of course). How long has it been published? Are you sure it didn't get beaten by Charles Schultz and "Peanuts" It's been integrated periodically for some time now."
"Wee Pals"is only a couple years old, I think,but the fact still remains that "Wee Pals" is the only strip that features black and white kids every day.

Greg Robertson wants to know;
1. What strips were in Flash Comics besides Flash and Hawkman?
Besides those two you would have found: The Atom in 80, 82-85, 87, 89-95, 97-104 except for 101. Ghost Patrol in 69-83, 89-104. Hop Harrigan 66-68. Johnny Thunder 1-91. The Black Canary 92-104. She was also in the Thunder stories in 86-88, 90-91. The Whip 1-55. Little Boy Blue #81. The King 3-15, 16-37, 39-41. Minute Movies in 1-59, Cliff Cornwall 1-17, Rod Rian 2-11 and a few lesser strips.
2. I have heard of a DC Golden Age character called Manhunter. Do you know about him?
Yes I do. He appeared in Adventure Comics 73-92. Simon and Kirby did the strip from 73 thru 80 then others took over. His AE was that of Paul Kirk. He had no powers or close friends. His costume was red with dark blue trunks, boots and gloves. His light blue mask was like a second face (like the Spectre).
3. What strips were in Big All American?
See page two of this column.
4. Did All Star become All Star Western, All-American All-American Western and Sensation - Sensation Mystery?
Right on all counts.
5. What other Quality Comics did DC buy besides Blackhawk and Plastic man? There was a War title and a Horror title.

My deepest thanks to Dennis Klebe for loaning me his Mystery In Space Comics 92-95. Although Adam Strange was reduced to playing second fiddle to Spaceman I found the story and Lee Elias' art not bad at all on Adam. Perhaps even better then those boring stories that DC has been reprinting in Strange Adventures. I did notice one thing. Elias omitted Adam's head gear on his version. I think the big reason for Adam's downfall was the shift in editors from Julius Schwartz to Jack Schiff at a time when Schiff wasn't winning any prizes and at the same time Schwartz was considered king of the comic books. CAN anyone tell Dennis what the last number and title Classics Illustrated has published?

On page 11 of this column Clay Kimball ask about some coverless comics. Bruce Kimble has the answers to the 3 Detectives. Batman in "Laugh, Town Laugh"is from #62,"Laboratory Loot"is #89 and "House that was Held for Ransom" from #102.

Speaking of Detective, Bruce and I are working on an Index of all the Batman stories that have appeared in Detective. When finished this index will appear either as part of this column or in a Handbook. We need the title of the Batman story, page count of each story and villain (if a recurring villian like Joker, etc.). We need this data from Detective #39,41,42,45-47,51-59,64-66,105,107,109,112-114,118, 125,131,137,138,142,148,150-275,277-326. I know that is a lot of Detectives we need info on but it is a worth while project.

Here are a few additional Doc Savage notes from John Clark for Savage fans: Johnny, the geologist of Doc's crew, underwent the most change through the years. He spoke like a nomal person from March 1933 thru April 1934, then with the June '34 (or May) he started using big words. Johnny wore a pair of glasses and was blind in one eye from March '33 thru Jan. '34 but in the Feb. '34 issue, Doc performed surgery on his eye and returned it to normal and he discarded the glasses and mounted the magnifying glass part of them into a monical. But in 1939 he is again wearing glasses, with no explanation. Then in 1940 he is back to the monicale. In the Dec. '33 issue Monk aquired his pet pig "Hobeos Corpus" and in Oct. '35 issue Ham got his pet monkey "Chemistry". In the Jan. '34 issue, Doc's cousin Pat Savage made her debut and was a regular in Sept. thru Dec. '34, and appeared occasionally in later issues. Thanks John.

Robert K. Wiener has these newspaper strip questions I hope someone can answer for him.

1. When did the strip "Funnyman" by Siegel & Shuster begin and end? I have strips between Oct. 24 1948 and Sept. 25 1949.
2. When did the strip " The Saint" begin and end? Dates I have are June 12, 1949 and Nov. 26 1950.
3. What about Sherlock Holmes by E. Meiser & F. Giacola which was running in 1954?
4. When was the last Miss Fury strip? The last I have is #477 in the first few months of 1952. Was there a gap in the Miss Fury strip? #326 is Sept. 1947 and #327 is March 6 1949 and this gap occured in the middle of a story line?

And one last answer: Allen Jay; Gary Sassaman says the first Prince Valiant Sunday was Feb. 13, 1937.

CORRECTION:Deadman will not be in From Beyond but in back of the Aquaman book 50-52 as back up feature.In Challengers of the Unknown 73 on, also as back up feature.

the COMIC WORLD

THE COMIC WORLD

After two years in the army, and another year of settling back into civilian life, we have brought back THE COMIC WORLD with the same format, style, and writing which won us seven Alley awards for our past work. The times have changed, and so have we. For one thing we're monthly now, and for another we're photo offset cover to cover. One thing that has not changed is our editorial policy. THE COMIC WORLD is still devoted to the principle that any subject worth writing about is worth covering in depth, and detail. You'll find no two and three page shortie articles in COMIC WORLD, only good substantial writing, well illustrated and well laid out.

THE COMIC WORLD #11 is now out, featuring forty full sized pages of the best in information and analysis of the comics field. Our features include——

DAREDEVIL! the only complete, in-depth examination ever attempted of Lev Gleason's famous costumed hero. A total analysis complete with illustrations taken from the original comics

INFORMATION CENTER our traditional, award winning column devoted to answering any and all questions concerning any phase of comicdom

WHITE INDIAN a close look at one of ME's western features, one of Frank Frazetta's best drawn strips

Plus all the regular features and goodies which round out every issue of THE COMIC WORLD. Whether you are an old reader of long standing, or a new comer meeting us for the first time, we're sure you'll agree, that if you like comics, you'll like every issue of THE COMIC WORLD.

THE COMIC WORLD #11, just 50¢. Send all orders to——

FOR SALE: THE ONLY EXISTING "ASMODEUS" ORIGINAL ARTWORK IN ALL FANDOM!!

To perhaps only the most learned, the most honored men of Fandom, is known the English comic newspaper, Punch. Founded in 1842, it was the very first of it's kind. And there are few remaining copies of it's earliest issues. It is then easy to assume that any of the original art from the first few issues is very valuable, and indeed a fine investment. I have in my possession the only known original piece of "Asmodeus Of Ireland" in existence. Yes, the original artwork, fully inked and colored, just as it was printed in Punch in the 1840's. The size is 11" X 9", the condition is Perfect! I would like to trade this beautiful piece of art for an original Prince Valient sunday strip. I have been assured that this would be an even trade. If no one has a Foster Valient, then I shall sell Asmodeus by bid. If you wish to bid for this magnificent collectors rarity, then please do so. The bids start at only 80 dollars!!! The first bid of 110 dollars gets it automatically. If you do get strip(which is in the original frame it was in 120 years ago)I will pay all postage costs. Be assured that it will be insured and sent by first class mail. Finally, please do not send money or any checks in the mail, unless it is the aformentioned 110 dollars. The same goes for Foster art. Send all bids etc. to ADAM MALIN 197-50 C PECK AVE. FLUSHING, N.Y. 11365. Thank you for your valuable time.

"OUTLAW DEATH-WARRANT!"

AVAILABLE AT LONG LAST!!! "THE CINNAMON BEAR RADIO CHRISTMAS SERIAL"

After searching for nearly four years we finally found it. This was a radio serial that started each year about the 1st of December (during the '40s) and was run about 5 or 6 days a week right up to Christmas, in 15 minute chapters. We would have been happy to find just one or two of the shows, but low and behold, we have acquired the complete 24 chapter serial ! For those of you that remember it from your youth, I'm sure you'll want the entire serial, which runs about 6 hrs. [redacted] (no commercials). But to jog your memory a bit, remember: the search for the Silver Star, the crazy-quilt dragon, the Wintergreen Witch, the airplane that ran on soda pop??? The entire serial is available (on 7 inch reels) for only $16.50 (on 5 inch reels, $18.25). I realize that some of you may not want the entire serial, or may not want to buy it all at once. On the other hand, we just do not have time to sell it chapter by chapter. But we will sell it this way, too. You may purchase the first 5 chapters for $4.50. Then later on, if you want the remaining 21 chapters, these may be purchased for $13.50. Good Sound.

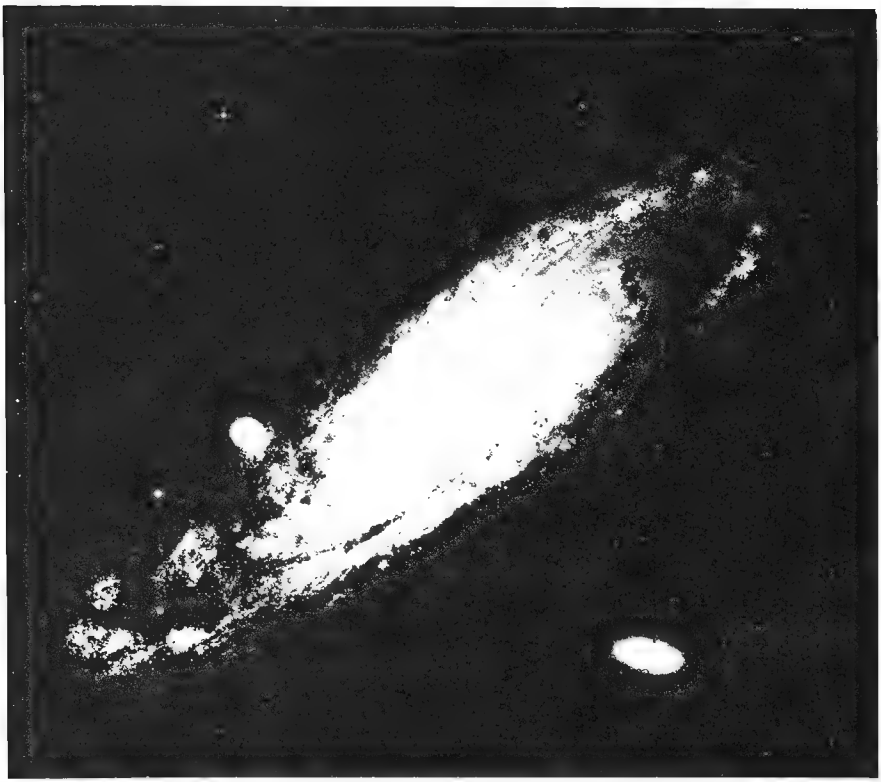
PHENOMENON



PHENOMENON: an observable fact or event: an item of experience or reality: a rare fact or event: a fact or event of special or unique significance...
Phenomenon #1 may not be the best illustrated art/comic stripzine in the galaxy, but it's far from the worst. And best of all, it has potential. Infinite. But to make the most of Phenomenon in the future, we must sell it in the present. So we implore you to buy number one, to support number two which may well be the best illustrated fantasy fanzine in the galaxy. For fifty cents (plus 6¢ return postage). Buy Phenomenon #1 and support #2; experience two new worlds in this issue...and an infinity in the next. Peace.
